Meeting ID: 995 5861 9658 Passcode: 067842

Greetings Friends, this is Pastor Kathy. This week most colleges in our state will begin their final exams. Two of our members are students away at college, Ainsley Hudson and Kevin Stegall. We surround them, and all those who are preparing for their exams in our prayers. Will you pray this prayer this week over our students in particular and all those who are preparing for exams?

Dear God, surround our students with compassion, inspire them with energy, direct them in focus, and hold them in calm assurance of what they have learned this past semester. Guide their attention to completing the task they began in the cold mornings of winter. And remind them that their worth is not in what they know, or what grade they might get, but in how you have called them your own, and that you love them. We pray all these things in the power of the Holy Spirit and the wisdom of Jesus Christ, Amen.
